The Value of Difference Between (Bbasra and Kkovin)

Dr. Hanan Mohammad Abulibdeh

Abstract

This research included an introduction and three axes; the first axis is talking about the cause of controversy grammar, such as linguistics article, the difference in dialects, the ease of syntax and contrast the capabilities of scientists in the intelligence and mental abilities and other.

The second axis is talking about the point of views of some ancient and modernists in dispute.

The third axis is handled the value of the deposit, and that in two of the issues: issues which affect the dispute in the use of the language and issues of the dispute does not affect the use of language in.

And the study concluded that the value of difference between (basra and kovin) in matters that effect use of language represented in two thing : first : the widening use of language afforded dispute, and the second is to enrich the language compositions and methods of language that sorted by the dispute.

As for the value of the dispute in matters that do not affect the use of language in it assimilate contribute to the training of learners to what is in the origins of the dispute and grammatical clues and other mental skills.
