Opinion of Al-Soyoty in Hama' Al-Hawamea'

An analytical study

An analytical study of Al-Soyoty opinions in Hama' Al-Hawamea'.

This study is devoted on Al-soyoty openions and agreements in the book "Hama' Al-Hawamea' in accounting for Jama' Al-Jawamea' ".

In this book, most of grammatical issues were gathered in addition to many evidences and other grammarians' opinions including criticizing these opinions, rejecting some and differentiating between the accepted ones. This is how his opinions and preferences arose.

The reason for this study

The book " Hama' Al-Hawamea' " is sorted among the most famous and extensively explained works of Al-Soyoty. His opinions arise in plenty throughout this book and so does his grammatical justifications. This urged the researcher to collect these opinions and arrange them according to agreement or disagreement to Basra's or Kofa's grammarians' openions. In doing so, his grammatical choices and the resources he adopted ore then exhibited.

Objectives:

This study aims to establish the following:

1. Collecting and describing the opinion of Al-Soyoty throughout his book " Hama' Al-Hawamea' ".

2. Sorting of the opinions due to subjects.
3. Showing whether his opinions agree or disagree with grammar schools.
4. Introducing of evidences and resources he adopted and actually applied them in the book " Hama' Al-Hawamea' ".

Difficulties:

1. The -----subject under study because the opinions of Al-Soyoty prevails in all grammar subjects which took a great effort in studying them.
2. A great amount of opinions were not clarified as belonging to specific grammarians. This forced the researcher to go through a wide collection of non-justified opinions.
3. The apparent lack of our libraries in Gaza strip to many important references needed to support the research.

Research plan:

This introduced work is designated to follows:

- Introduction: in which the researcher talked about the important of the subject, reason of the study, purposes, difficulties and finally the previous studies concerning this subject.
- Preface: which is devoted on two items:
 1. Al-Soyoty and his grammatical inheritance.
 2. The book " Hama' Al-Hawamea' in accounting for Jama' Al-Jawamea' ".
- Chapter1: Al-soyoty and grammatical schools:

This chapter is divided into five sub-sections:

Section1: opinion of Al-Soyoty about Basra grammarians.

Section2: opinion of Al-Soyoty about Kofa grammarians.

Section3: opinion of Al-Soyoty about majority of grammarians.

Section4: opinion of Al-Soyoty about other grammatical opinions.

Section5: his own opinions.

– Chapter2: evidences of Al-Soyoty in Hama' Al-Hawamea'.

This chapter is divided into three sub-sections:

Section1: grammatical evidences from holly Quran, Hadith, and then poetry and prose.

Section2: grammatical resources which include hearing, syllogism, reasoning, and accompany.

Section3: resources of Al-Soyoty in " Hama' Al-Hawamea' " which include grammarians opinions and writings.

– Conclusion:

Where results and recommendations are settled.

– Method of research:

Owing to the nature of this subject, the method used here is the analytic descriptive method.
